STEP 1

Go to: FindTreatment.gov

STEP 2

Enter an address, city, or zip code for the area to search and click the “Search” button

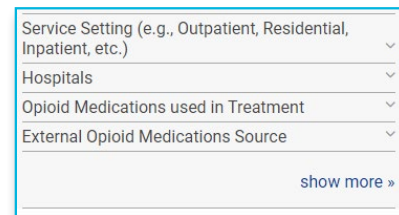

STEP 3

On the search results screen, both “Substance Use” and “Mental Health” are selected in the “Facility Types” section under the “Filter by” column. In order to use this tool to identify facilities that provide substance use treatment and have the ability to filter for substance use-specific criteria, deselect “Mental Health”

STEP 4

On the left side, a “Substance Use” box will display possible filters. Click “show more” to see additional filter options

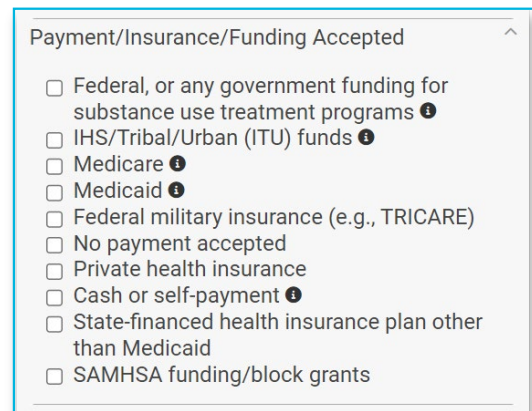

STEP 5

Scroll down the list of filter options to select additional criteria to further customize the facility search results. Possible filter options include, but are not limited to:

- Type(s) of medication provided at the facility under “Medication Therapy”
- Type(s) of insurance accepted at the facility under “Payment/Insurance/Funding Accepted”

The selected filter criteria are automatically applied to the search results

STEP 6

Once the desired filter options have been selected, scroll to the top of the page to see the search results. The right side of the page will display the list of treatment facilities that meet the filter criteria. Click “View in a map” at the top of the page to view these search results on a map.
