Behavioral Health Treatment Services Locator

Find a Facility That Provides Substance Use Treatment

Locating an appropriate provider for the treatment of substance use disorder can be challenging. SAMHSA offers a confidential and anonymous source of information for persons seeking treatment facilities for substance use/addiction and/or mental health problems. See inside for information on how to use SAMHSA's Treatment Services Locator to find facilities that can provide substance use treatment according to individual specifications.

The Behavioral Health Treatment Services Locator is a third party website that is managed and owned by Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). STEP 1

Go to: <https://findtreatment.samhsa.gov/>

STEP 2

Enter an address, city, or zip code for the area to search and click the “Search facilities” button.

STEP 3

On the search results screen, check the box next to “Substance Use (SU)” in the “Find Facility” section in the top right corner. This will narrow the facility search results to those that provide substance use treatment, specifically.

STEP 4

A “Facility Services Selection” box will appear with the default filters displayed. Click “Search More Services” to see additional filter options.

STEP 5

Scroll down the list of filter options to select additional criteria to further customize the facility search results. Possible filter options include, but are not limited to:

- type(s) of medication provided at the facility under “Pharmacotherapies”
- type(s) of insurance accepted at the facility under “Payment/Insurance/Funding Accepted”

The selected filter criteria is automatically applied to the search results and displayed under “Services Selected”

STEP 6

Once the desired filter options have been selected, click the black “X” to exit out of the “Facility Services Selection” box. The list of treatment facilities that meet the filter criteria is provided to the right of the map.
